Dear friends and fellowlaborers,

I know we say it all the time but we are truly grateful for your prayers. They make a difference.

Youth Conference

This last month we had the privilege of being able to take our youth group to a youth conference hosted missionary Erik Johnson and Iglesia Bautista La Verdad. It was a great day and tremendous experience for our teens. We rented a bus, filled it with 20 teenagers and 5 adults and made the hour and a half trip. Most of our teens are not used to riding in vehicles, so car sickness was also a part of this grand adventure. There was plenty of games, food, and preaching to go around. One of the messages that greatly affected several of our saved teenagers was titled "What broke God's heart then, breaks His heart today" out of Isaiah 5. It has been mentioned several times since then. You can tell the Holy Spirit is really working in their hearts and they are listening.

Hurricanes

Many of you have asked us how we came through hurricane Fiona. We praise the Lord for His hand of protection over us. We truly believe this is in large part due to your prayers for us. While there was some flooding, power outages, and the collapse of a previously condemned bridge, the Dominican Republic made it through Fiona. Puerto Rico took most of her wrath this time. We continue to covet your prayers as Hurricane season is not over, as you well know from Hurricane Ian that hit Florida.

Please continue praying for Wesley as his knee is still quite swollen and the wound is still open. Also this month Bianny, one of the ladies of Iglesia Bautista Agua Viva, was hospitalized for 6 days. The doctors supposed it was leptospirosis, and while she is doing much better now, she is still not 100% so we do ask that you keep her in prayer for a full recovery.

We are grateful for you and praying for you also, Joshua and Teah Lane
